4. We have been in touch daily with [REDACTED] at the Advanced Management Program, Harvard ever since Col. White selected Dr. Proctor to fill the request from Dean Van Gorder, Administrative Director of AMP, for a 16 April luncheon speech to the "76" Club in Boston. [REDACTED] has been told of Col. White's directive of no publicity. We sent Dr. Proctor's secretary background material on the AMP and suggested he call [REDACTED] Director, Office of Logistics has also been kept informed at his request. On Tuesday [REDACTED] informed us of Dean Van Gorder's additional request to have Dr. Proctor address the AMP class. 25X1A9a

5. The Chief of Support, NPIC, [REDACTED] has requested a meeting between OTR support and external training people and their

7. [REDACTED] mother passed away in Hawaii. He will return to work after Easter.

25X1A9a

8. The collection of Russian geographical books given to the library by [REDACTED] about a year ago have been removed from the shelves. We are trying to relocate them into an area where 25X1A9a they may be useful. [REDACTED], LS, found them too advanced for his students. They occupied six shelves and were hardly ever used.

25X1A9a

9. [REDACTED] reported to duty as Library Assistant replacing [REDACTED] who resigned 19 March.

10. We are very pleased to have two people from the Clerical Pool assigned to ISS. They spend about half their time doing the records microfilming under [REDACTED] direction and the other half working on AIR backlog. Eight hours straight microfilming would drive anyone up the wall so we split their duties.
